ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining.

□ 1902

Mr. BENTIVOLIO changed his vote from “yea” to “nay.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. ADERHOLT. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 31, H.R. 225—National Pediatric Research Network Act of 2013, had I been present, I would have voted “yea.”

On rollcall No. 31, H.R. 297—Children’s Hospital GME Support Reauthorization Act of 2013, had I been present, I would have voted “yea.”

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 444, REQUIRE PRESIDENTIAL LEADERSHIP AND NO DEFICIT ACT

Mr. WOODALL, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 113-8) on the resolution (H. Res. 48) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 444) to require that, if the President’s fiscal year 2014 budget does not achieve balance in a fiscal year covered by such budget, the President shall submit a supplemental unified budget by April 1, 2013, which identifies a fiscal year in which balance is achieved, and for other purposes, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

LET’S START BUDGETING RESPONSIBLY

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, the only way for Washington to control its spending problem is to start budgeting, and budgeting responsibly.

House Republicans have passed responsible budgets for 2 consecutive years that restore economic growth and reduce our deficits. Unfortunately, the Senate has not passed a budget in 4 years, and today the President missed the deadline for submitting his own budget to Congress for the fourth time in the last 5 years.

You don’t have to look much further than these facts to learn why Washington has such a hard time living within its means. For this reason, the House is advancing a series of initiatives to force Washington’s hand.

On January 23, 2013, the Chamber passed the No Budget, No Pay Act, which forces the Senate to pass a budget or Members of Congress will lose their pay. This week the House will consider legislation forcing the President to produce a balanced budget or submit a plan that indicates the earliest year he believes fiscal balance can be achieved.

Hardworking Americans run their households by setting a budget and then living within those means. It’s time for Washington to do the same.

PULSE OF TEXAS—RONALD FROM KINGWOOD, TEXAS

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, Ronald from Kingwood, Texas, writes me this:

My family and I paid taxes, raised a family, contributed to the community and our church. But we are very disappointed in Washington. Our government is spending money it doesn’t have. And our President says, in other words, Tax those Americans who have worked hard, balanced their household budgets, saved, and have been successful.

My wife and I always thought that was the American Dream. In 2013, our taxes have gone up. Why? Why? Why? Because Congress doesn’t cut its spending. There should be no tax increases on any Americans until there are significant spending cuts. Normal Americans can’t simply borrow money. So why should government? I’ve worked hard for what I’ve achieved. Now why should we pay more taxes just because Washington has a spending addiction?

Mr. Speaker, we can’t tax our way and spend our way into prosperity.

And that’s just the way it is.

REMEMBERING THEODORE “TED” W. OGLE

(Mr. ROKITA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ROKITA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and salute a remarkable Hoosier, Theodore “Ted” W. Ogle. He was a true leader in his home of Columbus, Indiana. He left us way too soon.

Mr. Ogle served his community in many ways, including as a youth sports official and coach, as a board member of the Big Brothers and Big Sisters, and for 16 years on the Columbus City Council. Most recently, he served local Republicans as county and district chair. He was my dear friend.

I got to know Ted best when I first ran for office and needed his support. Ted said he was happy to see me but that his boys had a swim meet, and if I needed to see him, it was going to have to be there. So off I went to see him that day. To be honest, I probably learned more about swimming than politics.

As this Chamber knows, politics can be a tough business. There’s always another meeting, another event, another obligation. It is all too easy to push our family life to the back burner. In his own quiet but direct way, Ted showed me where he set his priorities, and when it came time for me to have a wife and children, where I should set mine. I try to do that.

That was Ted Ogle—a man truly committed to God, his family, his country, and his party. I will miss his friendship, counsel, and most of all, his good example.

A REMEMBRANCE OF THE HEROES OF THE SPACE SHUTTLE “COLUMBIA—STS” 109

(Mr. OLSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. OLSON. Mr. Speaker, on April 12, 1981, the space shuttle Columbia blasted off into space to launch America’s space shuttle program. She would complete 28 missions, with over 300 days in space. As every American knows, we lost Columbia as she came home on February 1, 2003. We all mourn the seven brave astronauts who lost their lives that day. We’ll never forget Commander Rick Husband, Pilot Willie McCool, and the five mission specialists: Michael Anderson, David Brown, Kalpana Chawla, Ilan Ramon from Israel, and Laurel Clark.

As a Member of Congress who grew up with astronauts, I have been blessed to meet some of the families of Columbia’s last crew. One of them said words I’ll never forget:

In their final moments, Columbia and her crew came home to Texas.

May the Columbia crew rest in peace with our eternal thoughts and blessings.

REMEMBERING FORMER NEW YORK MAYOR ED KOCH

(Mr. ENGEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ENGEL. This morning, I attended the funeral of former Congressman and former mayor Ed Koch in New
